Jewell places eleven on all-conference team

The Cardinals, league champions with a 6-1 record, placed six players on the first-team offensive unit, which included 13 selections. Four Jewell gridders were picked for the 11-man first-team defensive unit, and the Cardinals took one of three first-team specialist slots.

Offensive linemen from Jewell included center Greg Embree, a 6-0, 210pound senior; guard Mark Mundell, a 6-1, 205 junior; and tackle Mike Rogers, 6-4, 225 junior.

Six-three, 195 junior Jim Reed was chosen as a wide receiver.

Kelly Groom was selected at quarterback and Steve Hodges at running back on the all-league squad. Groom is a 5-11, 180 senior. Hodges, 5-10, 210, is a junior.

Steve Hudson was named the top punter. Hudson, a senior, is 5-10, 180.

Defensive choices from Jewell included linemen Guy Weber, a 6-1, 240 senior; and Steve Montgomery, 6-1, 200 sophomore.

Tim Johnson of the Car-dominates the All- linebacker slot, and Mike were Todd White, Ralph William Jewell were nam- sion II playoff game Nov. Conference football team, Newman was tabbed as a Yeater, Fernandars ed to the second team, and 20 over Sul Ross State, 44announced by the Heart of defensive back. Johnson, 6- Gillespie and Darrell Steve Mattingly of the 43.

America Conference. 0, 195, is a sophomore. Schwabe. Andre Nelson Cards was a third-team Newman, 5-11, 165, is a was a third-team pick. junior.

William Jewell dinals was named at a second team on offense David Armstrong, of a quarterfinal NAIA Divi-

On defense, Jan Red-selection.

Jewell finished the Northwestern of Iowa in Cardinals chosen to the mond, Paul Taylor and regular season 8-1 and won the semifinals Dec. 4.

The Cardinals will host

SCHWABE STRETCHES TO A CATCH

Twenty Cardinals were named All-Conference.

The Kansas City Star, Wednesday, December 1, 1982

Football fits in Iowans' Dutch herita

By Bill Richardson

p in the Dutch-heritage country of Northwest Iowa, they turn out an abundance of tulips, wooden shoes and small-college football Westminster (Pa.), 9-1, will play at Linfield (Ore.), 10-0.

"Sixteen of our 22 starters come from a high-school conference of which the local high school is a member, and 15 of them are from Sioux County," Korver, who has a 117-40-3 record in his 16 seasons at Northwestern, scored 515 points and yielded 122. The 515 points broke the NAIA mark of 512 set by Baker University in 1980.

Northwestern defeated Dako-State 43-7 Central (Towa) 42ed quarterback and is ve at reading defenses," western offensive assist ly Kruger said. "And h excellent corps of receiv

Running backs Jim and Doug Bakker each 6 vards a carry. Kevin