

3 NAIA playoffs will be rematches

KANSAS CITY (AP) ¹³⁴ — Three of four NAIA Division II football playoff games will be rematches between teams which have played earlier this season, the association announced Sunday.

• The pairings in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics playoffs first round, to be played Nov. 22, will be: Baker University, Baldwin, Kan. (9-0-1), at William Jewell, Liberty, Mo. (10-0-1); Valley City State, N.D. (7-0), at McMurry, Abilene, Texas (9-1); Hanover, Ind. (8-1), at Wilmington, Ohio (7-1); and Linfield, McMinnville, Ore. (9-0), at Pacific Lutheran, Tacoma, Wash. (8-1).

All games are at 1 p.m. local time, except the Valley City-McMurry contest, scheduled for 11 a.m. St. Louis time.

The Baker-William Jewell matchup may finally decide something for the two teams, which battled to a 10-10 tie at Liberty during the regular season and became co-champions of the Heart of America
