

Jewell Plays At Home In NAIA Semifinals

136
Compiled From News Services

William Jewell College of Liberty, Mo., will be the host for one of the semifinal games in the NAIA Division II football playoffs Dec. 6.

On Saturday, William Jewell advanced to the semifinals with a 20-17 victory over Baker University of Baldwin, Kan., which had tied William Jewell, 10-10, on Nov. 8.

In the semifinals, William Jewell (11-0-1 this season) will face Wilmintgon (Ohio) College (8-1), a 56-49 winner over Hanover (Ind.) College in the first round.

In the other semifinal, Valley City (N.D.) State College (8-0) will play at Pacific Lutheran University (9-1) of Tacoma, Wash.

Valley City defeated McMurry College of Abilene, Texas, 16-7, and Pacific Lutheran beat Linfield College of McMinnville, Ore., 35-20, in the quarterfinals.

The championship game will be played Dec. 13 at a site to be announced later.