

Player Honored

Tim Johnson of Kansas City, freshman linebacker for the William Jewell College Cardinals, received double honors the week of Sept. 15 as he was selected as both the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) District 16 and the Heart of America Athletic Conference (HAAC) Defensive Player of the Week.

A former Rockhurst High School standout, Johnson was selected on the basis of his play in the Cardinals' victory over Graceland College Sept. 12. He had 19 assisted and 2 unassisted tackles against the Yellowjackets. He also blocked a punt and returned a pass interception for 18 yards.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Johnson of 429 West 66th Terrace, Johnson is majoring in psychology and business at William Jewell.
