

William Jewell 49 Graceland 14

LAMONI, Iowa—Quarterback Mark Capra threw five passes to Rod Schermerhorn for 121 yards and two touchdowns as William Jewell downed Graceland 49-14 in a Heart of America Conference game.

The victory earned William Jewell a share of the conference championship with Baker at 5-1. The Cardinals ended their regular season with a 9-1 record and hope to gain a spot in the NAIA Division II playoffs.

Capra rushed 68 yards for another touchdown to open the scoring and then passed 15 yards to Schermerhorn to give William Jewell a 14-0 lead.

Dave Cunningham, who finished with 125 yards rushing, ran 15 yards for another touchdown and William Jewell had a 21-0 halftime lead. /